Conferences at Royal Bath Hotel

The Royal Bath is situated in two acres of manicured gardens with magnificent views overlooking Bournemouth Bay and is the ideal venue to hold your meeting or event. When you arrive, both you and your delegates will experience the true meaning of hospitality, which has now become our trademark.

The Royal Bath has a diverse range of meeting room facilities ranging from the Kings. Hall to our Lounge 1838. The King's Hall is an event organiser's dream, with its domed ceilings and stunning art deco styling it can be used for conferences, product launches and private dinners and has a capacity of 200 theatre style. For those needing a smaller meeting, private dining, or syndicate rooms, we have a further seven function suites that can hold between 10 and 80 people.

When it is time for your delegates to relax, the Royal Bath Hotel is perfectly situated for activities on Bournemouth's famous sandy beach and town centre. Our dedicated Conference and Events team can recommend activities for your delegates to ensure that your event is both memorable and successful.

Our professional approach to the needs of our conference delegates has ensured that many of our clients come back to us year after year.
